IV. Agenda

1. Committee Updates:

a. Finance Committee

Emily prepared the fiscal budget and provided electronic copies to the council prior to the meeting. Goals for this year are to break even, as we incorporated the startup costs associated with Ars as well as a few significant capital improvement projects.

The new budget provided by the Ars committee will be reviewed with the Ars committee in conjunction with the Finance council at the August meetings. As an FYI, the Archdiocese approved a two-year lease for the Ars project, and one of the conditions placed by the Archdiocese was that Ars not be a burden to the parish or its people. The hope is that Ars can capitalize on community/special events to increase overall income with the goal being to break even financially.

b. Maintenance / Physical Facilities

Jeff provided a list of projects. At this point, nothing requires approval.

c. Proposals/Bids for Review-None to review.

2. Old Business

- a. 200 yrs Catholicism in Dearborn County: This Thursday is the science talk at St. Paul's with a grillout prior to the event. Meal starts at 6 pm, and talk is at 7 in the church.
 - b. Leadership Summit: Confirmed Date is 11/9. Tentative plans at this time are to include a motivational speaker covering topics on how to lead, recruit volunteers and be productive. Plan is to invite all leaders in parish (employees, council members, volunteers who lead subcommittees). We would like to spend time at the summit defining the guidelines, boundaries and expectations of committees and leaders, and will ask leaders to bring current understandings of committee purpose and tasks.
 - c. 200 yrs monument at St. John's: Looking into placement options.
 - d. Addictions Ministries: Awaiting updates from Father Meyer.
3. New Business
- a. New Officer Elections:
Chair: Bev Wilgenbusch
Vice Chair: Tom Huber
Secretary: Michelle Deddens

IX. Pastor's Comments / Purpose Fulfilled:

1. Sharing by All: Purpose Fulfilled
Many council members expressed their admiration of the 33 days of Eucharistic Glory program as a beacon of faithful teaching. It has been an awesome experience.
2. Closing prayer and meeting adjourned.
