Rules and Regulations-Revised July 1, 2025

All Saints Cemeteries are Roman Catholic Cemeteries properly consecrated as a sacred place in accordance with Canon Law 1210, which provides, “only things which server the exercise or promotion of worship, piety, and religion are to be admitted into a sacred place; anything that is not in accord with the holiness of the place if forbidden.”

Rules to be abided by

Anyone interested in obtaining burial rights must read and abide by these rules and regulations and do so by signing a copy of this document (page 2) for retention for both the individual and church records. It is our hope that by having this information it will better allow you and your loved ones to grieve with hope at your time of loss.

Definition of Terms

- A burial plot, also known as a grave, is defined as an area of ground intended for the burial of one individual for full body, two individuals for cremains, or one individuals for full body and one individual for cremains. In order for two individuals to be buried in a single plot the following criteria must be satisfied:
- Plots must be purchased and pre-planned, both individuals must be named at the time of purchase, both individuals must agree to be buried in one plot, cremains must be buried at the head of the grave, and both individuals must be immediate family. Immediate family is defined as spouses, parents, grandparents, children, or siblings.
- Cremains is the term used for the cremated remains of a human person.
- Spouses are defined as a man and women united in the sacrament of Holy Matrimony.
- Effective September 15, 2022 the option to bury in a columbarium is available at the St Martin cemetery.
- All Saints Cemeteries are properly consecrated as sacred places in accordance with Canon Law 1210, which provides “only those things which serve the exercise or promotion of worship, piety, and religion are to be admitted into a sacred place; anything that is not in accord with the holiness of the place is “forbidden”.
- A registered parish member is (1) on the Parish Roster and (2) also contributes financially and with the giving of their time and talent. A non-registered person is someone who does not meet the two mentioned criteria.

General Rules

- A full body burial requires the use of a vault.
- The burial of cremains does require a burial container but does not require the use of a vault, but it is strongly recommended.
- Cremains are to be buried in the ground or in a columbarium and treated with the same respect as a full body burial.
- Before the initiation of any burial plot preparation, or setting of a headstone, the parish office must be contacted so that the proper placement can be marked by members of the cemetery board.
- The cemetery board, with the approval of the parish council and the pastors, reserves the right to add or change regulations.

Plot Rules

- Burial right costs:
 - Single cemetery plot $500 – registered parish member, spouse and dependent children.
 - Single cemetery plot $1,000 – non registered person.
 - Single niche space in columbarium - $800 – registered parish member, spouse and dependent children.
 - Single niche space in columbarium - $1,600 – non registered person.
 - Miscarriage or infant burial - $0 – plot is donated by parish.
 - Checks are to be made out to All Saints Parish.
- Acquiring a plot/niche space means the right to be buried (burial rights), but the individual or family members of the person being buried do not own the ground; the ground is the property of All Saints Catholic Church.
- The right to burial in each plot/niche space belong to the individual who purchased them. They may be transferred to immediate heirs or decedents, with written notice given to the parish office, but they may not be resold. All sales take place through the parish office.
- Purchased rights can be donated back to All Saints if they are not to be used or a refund of the purchased price may be given by the parish upon written request.
- Rights are purchased with the intent of being used. Acquiring plots/niche space to block off areas is not the intent of our parish community cemetery; unused plots are contrary to our small parish cemetery concept.
- If multiple plots are acquired, (more than two) family members must be buried from left to right filling in every space, leaving room for spouses. This is to prevent single plots from being unused.

- All Saints is responsible for the maintaining the grounds after burial. It may take six months to one year for the completion of fill dirt and seeding.

Columbarium Rules

- The purpose of the columbarium is for interment of human cremains. Financial savings exist in using a columbarium vs burying in the ground. Charges for opening and closing the grave, pouring the headstone foundation, and purchasing a headstone would not apply.
- One individual cremains per niche is permitted. Each niche is 12"x12"x12".
- Niche space will be assigned on a first come, first serve basis. The columbarium is two sided. We will sell niches on the Church side first from top to bottom and left to right.
- Interments in the niches may be made only in sealed urn and must be smaller than 12"x12"x12".
- The faces of the niches may be engraved prior to or after death. The parish will provide the plaque to be engraved. Engraving should be complete within 90 days of burial. All final engraving designs must be sent to the parish office and approved by the subcommittee of the cemetery board which consists of one board member from each historic campus, and if needed consultation with the pastors and parish council, prior to final order placement. Designs should follow the guidelines listed below.
- The cost of the urn and engraving are not included in the purchase price of the niche.
- Opening and closing of niches: All Saints Parish will arrange for the opening and closing of niches at the time of interment. Cost is included in the purchase price of the niche.
- Access to the niche after interment is prohibited.
