

St. John Vianney Novena

July 26 – August 4

O God, you raised up humble St. John Vianney to show what one priest can do. Pour out your graces upon my priests, and all priests, that they follow this saint's example. So, in the words of St. John Vianney I pray:

I Love You, O my God. My only desire is to love You, until the last breath of my life. I love You, O infinitely loveable God, and prefer to die loving You, rather than to live for an instant without You. I Love You, O my God, and I desire only to go to Heaven, to have the happiness of loving You perfectly.

I love You, O my God, and my only fear is to go to Hell, because one will never have the sweet solace of loving You there. O my God, if my tongue cannot say at all times that I love You, at least I want my heart to repeat it to You as many times as I breathe. Ah! Do me the grace to suffer while loving You, to love You while suffering, and, that when I die: I not only will love You, but experience it in my heart. I beg You that: the closer I come to my final end, You will increase and perfect my love for You.

(Mention your personal intention here...)

I ask this in the name of Jesus. Amen.
