

Gospel Discussion Questions

Matthew 21:33-43

What is the message or story?

What is the Good News in this passage?

To whom is this story addressed? Why is this important?

How do we see the things/possessions/blessings in our lives as ours, when they are really God's?

Has your family ever experienced division over inheritance money? How do you prevent this?

Do you know someone who has been rejected by the "in-crowd" but then accepted by the minority?

Who are the people in our world that are hungry for the Gospel and for the Truth: the rich and famous or the poor and needy?

Are you receptive to the Gospel?

Are you a good tenant of the Lord?